

23rd Infantry Regiment Tomahawk Association Standard Operating Procedures

August 15, 2013

Policy Statements, Job Descriptions, and Operating Procedures
as they pertain to Officers, Trustees, and Committee Chairs

Table of Contents

- A. REFERENCES.....1
- B. AUTHORITY.....1
- C. PRESIDENT.....3
- D. VICE PRESIDENT.....4
- E. TREASURER.....5
- F. ASSISTANT TREASURER.....5
- G. SECRETARY.....5
- H. TRUSTEES.....6
- I. EDITOR OF THE TOMAMAHAWK.....7
- J. WEBMASTER/SOCIAL MEDIA.....7
- K. CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS COMMITTEE CHAIR.....8
- L. MEMBERSHIP DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE CHAIR.....9
- M. PUBLIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE CHAIR.....9
- N. CHAPLAIN.....10
- O. HISTORIAN.....10
- P. CUSTODIAN OF THE REGIMENTAL ARCHIVES AND MEMORABILIA.....10
- Q. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS COMMITTEE CHAIR.....11
- R. DATABASE ADMINISTRATOR.....12
- S. PAST PRESIDENT.....12
- T. TABLE OF ORGANIZATION.....13

A. REFERENCES.

- 1. Constitution. 23rd Infantry Regiment Tomahawk Association. (Articles)
- 2. By-Laws. 23rd Infantry Regiment Tomahawk Association. (Sections)
- 3. Department of Defense and Army Regulations/Instructions

B. AUTHORITY.

1. Activities of the Association. The Constitution provides that the activities of the Association are determined by the Board of Trustees in consultation with the Advisory Board and shall be professional and social in nature. Legal power and responsibility for operation of the 23rd Infantry Regiment Tomahawk Association rests with the Board of Trustees. The Board of Trustees establishes and reviews Association policies and oversees the general management of funds and properties. Members of the Board are elected for terms at the Association Tomahawk Rendezvous. They are installed in their office at the annual Regimental Dinner following the Rendezvous of their election. Vacancies on the Board of Trustees can be filled by the President with the majority concurrence of the Board of Trustees. The Trustees and Officers serve without remuneration. The Officers and Trustees welcome from members of the Association ideas and suggestions on how to better carry out our mission and objectives.

a. Determinations of the Board. Consistent with the Association's Constitution and By-Laws, enunciating the operating policies of the Association are provided here for the general information of the membership. They provide Board approved guidance to all the elected and appointed officials, and ensure that directives applicable to these officials are followed.

b. Policy statements and job descriptions provide essential continuity between successive elected and appointed officials. Policy statements and job descriptions ensure that directives applicable to elected or appointed officers are followed.

2. Objectives. The objectives of the Association are to promote morale and high esprit de corps among members of the Regiment, provide opportunities and facilities uniting past and present members of our Regiment in a program dedicated to the preservation of the history and traditions of the 23rd Infantry Regiment.

3. Elected Officers. The Officers and Trustees are responsible for the day to day operation of the Association. As a result, they are required to actively participate in the operation of the Association. Officer and Trustee positions are open to any member of the Association in good standing. Persons wishing to nominate another member of the Associations should be aware of the requirements and responsibilities of the position for which the nomination(s) is (are) made. To be a candidate for office a member should be aware of the position's requirements and attend the regularly scheduled meetings, The Tomahawk Rendezvous, and the Annual Regimental Dinner before accepting the nomination.

4. Conduct of Association Business.

a. The business of the Association is conducted at the annual membership meeting convened during the Annual Tomahawk Rendezvous. Business may be conducted at regular and special meetings convened by the President, and during the Annual Regimental Dinner, also.

b. When Association business requires action between general meetings the Board of Trustees acts on behalf of the members. Such business may be conducted at a special meeting or by mail, phone, email, or videoconference. A majority of the Board of Trustees in concurrence is required for any actions taken. Actions taken by the Board of Trustees are subject to review during the business meeting at The Tomahawk Rendezvous.

c. The Executive Committee may act on behalf of the Board of Trustees if the business of the Association requires urgent action. Such action requires subsequent review by the Board of Trustees.

5. Newsletter. The Association publishes a newsletter known as THE TOMAHAWK. THE TOMAHAWK is an instrument of the Association created as one means by which the Association may achieve its objectives, "to promote morale and high esprit de corps among current members and veterans of the regiment, provide opportunities and facilities uniting past and present members of the regiment in a program to the preservation of traditions and history of the 23rd Infantry Regiment". Policy formulation related to the Association support and editorial policy is retained by the Board of Trustees. THE TOMAHAWK provides information of Association business, schedules, financial reports, absentee ballots, calls for nominations, history, traditions, articles promoting attendance at meetings and events, and articles to promote membership in the Association. It includes letters and articles from members, the active battalions, the Honorary Colonel of the Regiment (HCOR) and the Honorary Sergeant Major of the Regiment (HSGMOR).

6. Archives and Memorabilia. The Association collects, maintains, stores, displays or loans books, papers, photographs, diaries, foreign and domestic army equipment and uniforms, and memorabilia pertaining to the Army and our Regiment. The Association encourages members to donate to this collection, and ensures the collection is well maintained and utilized. This collection is known as the 23rd Infantry Regiment Historical Repository.

7. Monuments and Awards Fund. The Association maintains a separate fund to receive donations from our members and others to provide funds for monuments and plaques to be placed in appropriate locations to memorialize the history of the Regiment. These funds are also used to purchase awards to honor members and veterans of the 23rd Infantry Regiment who achieve special recognition e.g. Soldier of the Year, NCO of the Year, or others who make contributions to the Regiment that deserve special recognition.

C. PRESIDENT.

1. Policy. The President keeps the Board of Trustees and the Membership informed of the business and activities of the Association. He may commit the Association to any action or financial obligation with the approval of the Board of Trustees or the membership. He consults and works closely with the Advisory Board. He keeps the active duty battalion commanders and their staff informed of Association business activity. He works closely with the active duty battalions in the planning and conduct of the Annual Tomahawk Rendezvous including their participation during the Annual Regimental Dinner.

2. Job Description. In addition to the duties stated in the Constitution and By-Laws the President is responsible for the following activities:

a. Tomahawk Rendezvous. He works with the HCOR and the host battalion commander, or his designated representative, in working out details for the events of the Rendezvous including reviews, retreat ceremonies, demonstrations, visits and tours on and off post, lunches, dinners (banquets-"Dining In") golf tournaments and sporting events. The Tomahawk Rendezvous rotates each year between the active duty battalions. The most appropriate date for the Rendezvous is close to the 21 September Regimental Founder's Day. The host battalion sets the date taking into consideration training schedules, deployments, or other events. The President with his staff is responsible for the promotion of The Tomahawk Rendezvous among members of the Association. The Association may manage registration for the Rendezvous or it may be managed by the host battalion. The Tomahawk, notices in veterans. publications, special letters of invitation, websites, and social media all are used to promote the Rendezvous.

b. Annual Regimental Dinner. The Annual Regimental Reception and Dinner is held during the Tomahawk Rendezvous. The President makes the arrangements or delegates the task. The President works with the battalion commanders of the active duty battalions to provide support for this dinner. The support, when time and resources permit, consists of the National and Colors of the Regiment and battalions, an honor guard for the Colors, the battalion commanders or their representatives, the Command Sergeants Major of the battalions, and the Soldier and NCO of the Year for each battalion. The President is responsible for the program. A meeting of the Board of Trustees may be held during the reunion. The President is responsible for promoting the attendance of veterans at this meeting.

c. Annual Business Meeting. An annual business meeting is held in conjunction with The Tomahawk Rendezvous. The President establishes the agenda considering suggestions from Officers and Trustees. All veterans attending the Rendezvous are welcome to participate. If necessary, a meeting of the Board of Trustees is called in addition to the general meeting. The battalion commanders, or their representatives, the HCOR, and HSGMOR are urged to participate in this meeting.

d. Election of Officers is held at Annual Business Meeting every other year. Absentee ballots are counted at this meeting and the election certified. Installation of new officers occurs at the annual Regimental Dinner held during The Tomahawk Rendezvous.

e. Committee Chairs. The President, with approval of the Board of Trustees, makes all appointments of Committee Chairs. The President fills any vacancies as they occur. The President is responsible for the activity and productivity of the Committees. He consults and corresponds with Chairs to provide whatever assistance and guidance he can render. All committee chairmen are responsible to submit committee budgets in a timely fashion upon the request of the Treasurer.

D. VICE PRESIDENT.

1. Policy. The Vice President participates fully in the activities of the Association. He assumes the leadership of the Association in the event of death, resignation, serious illness, or debility of the President. The Vice President assists the President and the membership in all matters of the Association.

2. Job Description.

a. When requested by the President, the Vice President makes all Annual Regimental dinner arrangements for location, menu, price, date with the host hotel, or neighboring restaurant or dining facility. The Vice President maintains this SOP.

b. The Vice President is responsible for liability and errors/omissions insurance for the Association and that the Treasurer is continually bonded.

E. TREASURER.

1. Policy. The Treasurer is the chief financial officer for the Association. He is responsible for the financial soundness of the Association. The Treasurer assists the President and the membership in all financial matters of the Association.

2. Job Description.

a. The Treasurer collects and disburses Association money. He deposits funds into an Association bank account, identifies funds received by purpose, makes an annual financial statement defining the financial status of all funds, prepares financial statements as required for meetings, promptly pays expenses of the Association, reimburses officers expenses based on a signed, detailed statement, maintains a detailed check book showing funds received and dispersed. With approval of the President and Board of Trustee, he invests excess funds in certificates of deposit and/or savings accounts. He assists elected and appointed officers in the formulation of their annual budgets and prepares and presents a budget for approval the annual business meeting during The Tomahawk Rendezvous. He maintains a separate accounting system that, in part, duplicates the membership rolls, but is strictly an accounting of all funds received and for their purpose. He files tax returns and documentation to the Internal Revenue Service.

b. The Treasurer maintains official dues payment records including special categories. He ensures that persons enrolling and/or renewing membership are credited with membership fees and the years of membership expiration. He maintains a register of members, their guests, and others attending the Regimental Dinner and other functions.

c. The Treasurer coordinates with the Secretary, the Editor of THE TOMAHAWK, and Membership Chair to ensure that a collaborative and accurate database of active members is maintained. The Treasurer uses this database to maintain the official dues records of the Association.

d. Submits articles and financial statements for publication in THE TOMAHAWK.

F. ASSISTANT TREASURER.

1. Policy. The Assistant to the Treasurer is appointed to render support to the Treasurer and assume the responsibilities in the event the Treasurer is unable. He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees.

2. Job Description. He assists the Treasurer in managing transactions to include raffle mailing, sale of promotional items, and maintaining rosters needed for those transactions. He assumes the responsibilities of the Treasurer in his absence.

G. SECRETARY.

1. Policy. The Secretary assists the President and the membership in all administrative matters of the Association. The Secretary attends all meetings of the Association.

2. Job Description.

- a. The Secretary reads the minutes of the previous meetings, records all actions taken at meetings including old and new business, records the specific wording of all motions, makers and seconds of motions, and actions taken on the motion. He keeps a record of date, place, and time of the meetings, as well as attendance of officers, and members. He prepares formal typed minutes of the meeting for distribution to all officers and Trustees of the Association.
- b. The Secretary is responsible for maintaining the Constitution and By-Laws. He coordinates with the Chairman of the Constitution and By-Laws Committee when updates are scheduled and required.
- c. The Secretary is responsible for regularly maintaining and annually distributing a roster of members. The Secretary, in coordination with the Membership Chair, ensures that new members receive a current roster. The Secretary manages all official Association correspondence not directly related to a specific officer, trustee, or committee chair or member. The Secretary submits a budget for this office when requested by the Treasurer.
- d. The Secretary coordinates with the Treasurer, the Editor of THE TOMAHAWK, and Membership Chair to ensure that a collaborative and accurate database of members is maintained. The Secretary uses this database to maintain a count of special member categories such as MOH recipients, DMORs, HMORs, Charter Members, Founding Members, and Life Members.
- e. Submit articles of interest and reminiscences for publication in THE TOMAHAWK.

H. TRUSTEES.

1. Policy. Trustees are expected to be active and attend all meetings of the Association. Trustees may not be passive in their trusteeship. Trustees are expected to serve as Chairs or committee members of Association committees or sub-committees. Each Trustee exercises discretion in conversations with others and honors confidentiality when discussing Association business and activity. Each Trustee exercises fiduciary responsibility.

2. Job Description.

- a. Trustees offer suggestions and motions that assist the Association to achieve its objectives and purpose. They assist the other officers at meetings and events. The Trustees need not prepare a budget, but may submit vouchers for reimbursement for phone and postage expenses incurred while serving the Association.
- b. Submit articles of interest and reminiscences for publication in THE TOMAHAWK.

I. EDITOR OF THE TOMAHAWK.

1. Policy. The Editor is responsible for the publication of the Association newsletter, THE TOMAHAWK. He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees. The Editor makes every effort to produce an interesting, informative newsletter that serves the purpose and goals of the Association. He abides by Association directives pertaining to the publication of THE TOMAHAWK. He appoints assistant editors as required.

2. Job Description.

a. The Editor accepts letters and articles from the membership for publication. He is free to edit these articles for suitability and space availability. He rejects articles and letters that are inconsistent with the purpose and goals of the Association. Articles and letters that are personal in nature, attack, degrade, embarrass individuals or groups of 23rd Infantry, veterans, or members are not published. The Editor is free to establish the format and layout of the Newsletter. The following are features of the newsletter: Mail Call which includes letters to the editor, notes to the Treasurer, Chaplain's Corner, View from the TOC (HCOR report and comments), President's Message, Report from CDR, 1st Battalion, Report from CDR, 2nd Battalion, Report from the CDR, 4th Battalion, Historians Report (Regimental Historian stories), and Editor's Notes (Column by Editor of THE TOMAHAWK).

b. The Editor solicits content and articles from all other elected and appointed officers and trustees as well as the company commanders, first sergeants, sergeants major of the battalions. The Editor publishes articles of historical interest about the 23rd Infantry. The Editor is free to set the deadlines and publishing dates. Publishing dates are kept flexible to allow promotion of Regimental meetings that have variable dates due to military commitments of the battalions. He submits an annual budget requirement to the Treasurer.

c. The Editor of THE TOMAHAWK coordinates with the Treasurer, the Secretary, and Membership Chair to ensure a collaborative and accurate database of members is maintained. The Editor uses this database for preparing the mailing labels affixed to each Tomahawk.

J. WEBMASTER/SOCIAL MEDIA.

1. Policy. The Webmaster/Social Media is responsible for maintaining an accurate, informative, and visually appealing website and representation on appropriate social media sites that detail the Association's functions . He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees. He appoints assistants as required.

2. Job Description.

a. The Webmaster/Social Media makes every effort to produce an interesting, informative website and links to appropriate social media that serves the purpose and goals of the Association. He abides by Association directives pertaining to the publication of content pertaining to the Association.

b. The Webmaster/Social Media accepts letters, photographs, links, and articles from the membership for posting. He is free to edit these for suitability and space availability. He rejects items that are inconsistent with the purpose and goals of the Association. Items that are personal in nature, attack, degrade, embarrass individuals or groups of 23rd Infantry, veterans, or members are not posted. The Webmaster is free to establish the format and layout of the website and social media sites.

c. The Webmaster/Social Media coordinates with the Editor of THE TOMAHAWK and the other elected and appointed officers of the Association to ensure that collaborative and accurate information is maintained. The Webmaster provides a link to THE TOMAHAWK on the website and social media pages. The website and social media pages is not intended to replace THE TOMAHAWK, but complement its content.

d. The Webmaster/Social Media coordinates and obtains hosting services for the Association. Hosting services include appropriate disk space volume, guestbook functionality, 24X7 technical support, webstats, appropriate data transfer capability, and functionality. A budget is prepared by the Webmaster upon the request of the Treasurer.

K. CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS COMMITTEE CHAIR.

1. Policy. The Constitution and By-Laws Committee is responsible to the President for the coordination of changes proposed to the existing Constitution and By-Laws. He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees. There is no limit on the size of the committee. The committee chair is a member in good standing. The Chair may not be an elected officer.

2. Job Description. Following appointment, the Chair solicits recommendations for changes to the Constitution and By-Laws from the Board of Trustees. Members of our Association may also submit recommendations for change in the Constitution and By-Laws. The Chair reviews and evaluates all input throughout the year. The Chair verifies that the proposed changes are consistent with the objectives of our Association and Army regulations. The Chair informs the President of any suggested changes the committee feels are inappropriate. The Chair submits to the Board of Trustees any changes the committee feels are appropriate. The Board of Trustees approves or rejects the committee's recommendations. If approval is made, the Chair prepares a list of the proposed changes and an absentee ballot for publication in THE TOMAHAWK. The Chair assists in counting absentee ballots and presents the results of the vote of the membership as requested. The Chair coordinates and assists in the publication of the revised Constitution and By-Laws. A budget is prepared for the committee upon the request of the Treasurer.

L. MEMBERSHIP DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE CHAIR.

1. Policy. The Chair manages a program for recruitment of eligible persons as new members of the Association. He retains current members on the rolls. The Chair appoints committee members as needed. He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees. He consults with the President and the Board of Trustees on committee objectives, responsibilities, and budget.

2. Job Description.

a. The Chair identifies potential members by reviewing rosters of veterans and professional organizations, appropriate websites and social media to identify 23rd Infantry Regiment veterans eligible to join the Association. He prepares and communicates to each eligible prospect a recruiting letter. The letter includes information about the purpose and activities of the Association with an attached membership application brochure. He prepares and submits articles for publication in THE TOMAHAWK regarding membership goals and recruiting activities, provides information on how members may locate old acquaintances, and encourages additional membership.

b. The Chair prepares and issues new member Membership Certificates, Membership Cards, Welcome Letters, and Life Member Pins. He coordinates with the Secretary to ensure a current membership roster is provided to the new member.

c. The Chair coordinates with the Treasurer to identify delinquent members, prepares and mails personal correspondence as appropriate encouraging members to remain on the rolls in good standing, coordinates with the Treasurer and Editor to affix reminder notices to address labels of those members that are near becoming delinquent in dues payments. He compiles membership numbers by class, types, and periods of service. He prepares and submits a membership report for review at the annual Tomahawk Rendezvous, assists the Public Relations Chairman by promoting the Association in news releases to various civilian and veteran's publications, websites, and social media providing information on objectives, publications, membership eligibility, meetings and social activities.

d. The Chair prepares and submits a draft for the Association brochure, maintains contact with the active battalions regarding membership matters, provides the battalions with adequate amounts of Association brochures for distribution within the battalions, coordinates with Assistant Secretary/Treasurer for each battalion on recruitment within the battalions, submits an annual budget requirement to the Treasurer for the activities of the committee, maintains expenditure records and submits vouchers to the Treasurer for reimbursement.

e. The Membership Chair coordinates with the Treasurer, the Secretary, and the Editor of THE TOMAHAWK to ensure a collaborative and accurate database of members is maintained.

M. PUBLIC RELATIONS COMMITTEE CHAIR.

1. Policy. The Chair informs Army veterans and the public about the 23rd Infantry Regiment Association, its purpose, and activities. He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees.

2. Job Description. The Chair works with the Officers and Trustees in preparing news releases pertaining to Association meetings and activities. These news releases are sent to websites, social media, veterans' publications, general circulation newspapers, magazines, and any other publication that may have an audience interested in military affairs. The main effort for this committee is to publicize the Association. The Chair coordinates with the Webmaster/Social Media and Membership Chair to properly disseminate information about the Association. Accurate accounting of expenditures are maintained and submitted to the Treasurer for reimbursement. An annual budget requirement is prepared and submitted to the Treasurer.

N. CHAPLAIN.

1. Policy. The Chaplain meets the spiritual needs of the membership of the Association. He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees.

2. Job Description. The Chaplain gives invocations and benedictions when called upon. The Invocations and Benedictions are non-sectarian in content and acceptable to veterans of all faiths. He prepares an article for publication in THE TOMAHAWK. The article can contain information of a spiritual nature, but is non-sectarian and suitable for reading by members of all faiths. His article may tell of member's illness and deaths. The Chaplain provides and mails a sympathy card to the families of deceased members. The card displays the Regimental Crest and contains suitable wording to express the sympathy of the Association members. The Chaplain mails these cards upon receipt of information on deceased members. The Chaplain submits a budget upon request for the activities of his office.

O. HISTORIAN.

1. Policy. The Historian compiles and disseminates historical information to the members of the Association and other interested parties. He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees.

2. Job Description. The Historian researches the history of the Regiment, writes articles and papers about the history of the Regiment, compiles a list of books and references about the history of the Regiment, and writes articles on Regimental history for publication in THE TOMAHAWK, other publications, websites, and social media that have interest in our history. He assists in keeping an accurate and acceptable lineage record of the Regiment, and assists the Custodian of the Historical Repository in building the collection.

P. CUSTODIAN OF THE REGIMENTAL ARCHIVES AND MEMORABILIA.

1. Policy. The Custodian of the Archives and Memorabilia collection ensures the collection is properly inventoried, stored, displayed, and maintained. The collection remains the property of the Association, but may be loaned to the active battalions or other organizations for display. He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees.

2. Job Description.

a. The Custodian coordinates with the Battalion Commanders or a designated point of contact in the active battalions having items of our collection in storage or on display. The Custodian maintains a current and accurate inventory (Property Book). The Custodian coordinates with the Board of Trustees and Historian to solicit contributions to the collection by our members. He accepts contributions or directs the contributions directly to the battalion where the collection is on display or in storage. He thanks all contributors and assures them the gifts are well maintained. In the event the active battalion that has the collection on loan is deployed into combat or foreign service the Custodian gathers the collection for transport to his home or storage facility. He notifies the Board of Trustees of his action. The cost of transportation and storage will be borne by the Association.

b. The Custodian takes those steps necessary to ensure that Association property is clearly identified and delineated from Department of the Army designated historical items.

c. The Custodian should live in the vicinity of Joint Base Lewis McChord where the collection is most likely to be on loan. He remains current on the deployment status of the battalions where the collection is stored or displayed. He submits a budget on request for the activities of this position.

Q. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS COMMITTEE CHAIR.

1. Policy. The Chair of this committee solicits nominations for Association officers when elections are scheduled. He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees. He conducts and oversees the election. Elections are held every two years at the Tomahawk Rendezvous. Voting may be in person or by absentee ballot. Absentee ballots are counted and verified. The results reported at the business meeting of the Tomahawk Rendezvous. If there is a position without nomination, because of illness, or inability to serve, then nominations from the floor of that meeting are accepted. The Chair of this committee may not be a candidate for any office in the election being conducted.

2. Job Description.

a. The Chair prepares an article for THE TOMAHAWK. The article states the period of time when nominations are accepted, informs the membership which offices are open, notifies the members of this opportunity to run for office or to nominate someone who is qualified. The Chair informs the members of the duties and responsibilities of the office. The Chair reminds the members that write in nominations and nominations from the floor of the business meeting are not accepted except when a vacancy exists in the slate of nominees.

b. The Chair receives in writing from nominees their willingness to serve if elected. He prepares an absentee ballot for publication in THE TOMAHAWK. The deadline to return the absent ballots is set in time for the ballots to be collected and transported to the annual business meeting during the year of the scheduled election. He accepts only the official ballot as published in THE TOMAHAWK. The ballot is returned to the Chair in a plain sealed envelope with the signature of the voting member written on the outside of the envelope. The envelopes are opened and the ballots counted during the annual business meeting in the year of the scheduled election. The President appoints a Trustee or Association member not standing election to supervise the counting of the ballots. This appointee certifies to the membership the accuracy of the count.

c. In coordination with the Webmaster/Social Media will assess the feasibility of secure electronic voting on the Association website; will propose those procedures to the Board of Trustees for approval.

R. DATABASE ADMINISTRATOR.

1. Policy. The Database Administrator (DBA) is responsible for maintaining an accurate database of the Association members. He is appointed by the President with the approval of the Board of Trustees. He assists the elected and appointed officers of the Association by providing scheduled and ad hoc reports.

2. Job Description.

a. The DBA supports, maintains, and enhances a relational database of all information related to Association members. This database is maintained in a format to allow for sharing among elected and appointed officers.

b. The DBA maintains the privacy of Association members by limiting access to the database.

c. The DBA ensures that the database information is current and accurate by coordinating with the Membership Chair and the Treasurer. He updates the database based on membership renewals and new member information.

d. The database includes a table of current members and former members of the Association.

e. The DBA develops, supports, maintains, and enhances regular and ad hoc reports from the database and distributes these reports to the elected and appointed officers as required. These reports include, but are not limited to mailing labels, official rosters of members, company, battalion, or time period queries.

f. The DBA has experience in relational database design and Microsoft Access.

S. PAST PRESIDENT.

1. Policy. The Immediate Past President serves on the Board of Trustees. He actively promotes the objectives of the Association.

2. Job Description. The Immediate Past President attends all meetings of the Association and assists the Association leadership.

T. TABLE OF ORGANIZATION.

The following positions are specified in the Constitution and By-Laws and this SOP. The incumbent listed is current as of the date indicated on the first page of this SOP.

Elected Position Incumbent

President
Vice President
Secretary
Treasurer
Trustee
Trustee
Trustee
Trustee

Term Expires

Appointed Position

Assistant Treasurer
Chaplain
Editor of THE TOMAHAWK
Webmaster
Historian
Database Administrator
Custodian Of Memorabilia
Nominations and Elections Chairman
Constitution and By-Laws Chairman
Membership Chairman
Public Relations Chairman
Auditor
1st Battalion Assistant Secretary/Treasurer
2nd Battalion Assistant Secretary/Treasurer
4th Battalion Assistant Secretary/Treasurer
Immediate Past President

Term Expires

Advisory Board Position

HCOR HSGMOR
1st Battalion Liaison
2nd Battalion Liaison
4th Battalion Liaison

Term Expires